History and Ministerial Life of Apostle Joseph Ayo Babalola (1904-1959) Africa's Great Evangelist

Clement Ekundayo, 2023-06-24 God works in miraculous ways. He enabled the Israelites to cross the Red Sea on a dry ground. He pulled down the walls of Jericho without any bulldozer. Indeed, He is a God who makes way where there is no way. In the case of Africa's great evangelist and revivalist, Apostle Joseph Ayodele Babalola, the miraculous activity of God was clearly manifested. If Babalola had been a white missionary, the black people, nay, Africans would probably have regarded Holy Ghost power as exclusive preserve of the white men. Glory be unto God for bestowing on a proper black man extra- ordinary power of the Holy Spirit with which he was able to destroy the stronghold of devilish activities. BIRTH, EDUCATION AND WORKING CAREER Joseph Ayo Babalola was born Odo-Owa (Kwara State) on the 25th day of April 1904. His father was Late Pa David Rotimi, the first Baba Ijo (Lay President) of St. Peter's Anglican Church at Odo-Owa in the present day Kwara State. His mother was Madam Marta Talabi.

The Life and Ministry of Apostle Joseph Ayodele Babalola (from 1904-1959) John Odunayo

Ojo,1988

The Mantle of An Apostle Moses Oludele Idowu,2024-01-29 This book represents the fourth in the series on Joseph Ayo Babalola, his life, works and ministries; and also the first in the series on African God's Generals. The three books already published are: J.A. Babalola Great Power Through Prayer and Fasting J.A. Babalola; Foundation of an Apostle J.A. Babalola Thoughts of an Apostle. These books have gone through three to four reprints already, all in a space of few years, To God be the glory for the success of these books. The present volume Joseph Ayo Babalola Mantle of an Apostle, deals with the life of Apostle Babalola and the process of his empowerment. It deals with the study or investigation of the anointing or mantle of an apostle and how a believer or preacher can cultivate the same power in this age of deception. It reveals certain aspects of the life of Babalola, which are still unknown to most people. Although this book contains a 67-page biographical treatise or detail, it is NOT the biography. The biography of Babalola containing his whole story is still coming in another book titled; J.A. Babalola; Signs of an Apostle. This 800-page work of many years is already completed and will soon be published. Expect it. This book arises from a condition in the Church, a condition that I have observed for some years but which is now, in spite of every effort at amelioration, steadily growing worse. The worldly attitudes and the declining spiritual fortunes of the Church, particularly the pentecostal-evangelical segment, are too well known to any discerning mind. The loss of the messianic mission, focus and purpose by the Church, and of spiritual power by its popular leadership coupled with the dearth of the spirit of consecration and self-abnegation by the common run of professing Christians today are the main reasons and conditions from which this book derives its mandate. A lot of people are under the mistaken impression that the Church today is doing well. Sure, the forces of religion are making dramatic gains-what, with the building of skyscrapers, universities, monuments and multi-million complexes over the land. But these are not the proofs of spiritual vitality, if history is any thing to go by. The Church of Rome gained greater riches and opulence but she eventually died spiritually speaking. The current preoccupation of the Church with material prosperity, abundance, success etc is a clear signal that there are dangers ahead. ...I know thy works that thou hast a name that thou livest and art dead. There is a crisis, a spiritual power crisis in the Church of the modern day. And this is already being felt by the larger society. The wave of satanism and cultic religions presently blowing the minds of our youths and in our campuses is a case in point. Today there is occult revival in Nigeria as ritual murders, cult-related crimes, secret societies, occult-inspired songs, art, movies, cultic traditional healers masquerading as herbal medicine practitioners, are on the swing. This is apart from ethnic militias operating on occult principles, charms; and the infiltration of the popular church by full blown occultists under the name of pastors, reverend and Rev. Mrs. Juxtaposed with this saddening scenario is a popular Christianity without force, passion or effect, totally unfit to deal with the moral case of society. Youths are joining cults because the Church has failed to witness to the Living Christ and His power. This then is the reason for this book: finding an answer to the spiritual power crisis that has engulfed the modern Church. Introducing the Practice of Ministry Kathleen A. Cahalan,2010-08-01 Ministry is often examined in terms of who the minister is, not what the minister does. But the vocation to ministry must be understood as a call to identity as well as to practice, one that is rooted in Jesus' life and ministry as well as the Spirit's charisms. In Introducing the Practice of Ministry Kathleen A. Cahalan defines ministerial leadership as carried out through the practices of teaching, preaching, pastoral care, worship, social ministry, and administration for the sake of nurturing the life of discipleship in the community of believers. In her examination of charisms for each of the practices of ministry, Cahalan presents readers with a Trinitarian foundation, noting that the practices of discipleship and ministry have their origin in the very practices of God. Kathleen A. Cahalan is associate professor of theology at Saint John's University School of Theology, Seminary in Collegeville, Minnesota. She is author of Formed in the Image of Christ: The Sacramental-Moral Theology of Bernard Häring (Liturgical Press, 2004) and Projects That Matter: Successful Planning and Evaluation for Religious Organizations (Alban Institute, 2003). She is the past-president of the Association of Practical Theology.

Makers of the Church in Nigeria J. Akinyele Omoyajowo, 1995

How to Study the Bible Watchman Nee, 1999 The Bible is the inspired word of God, and every believer should study it in order to know the rich and vast content of God's divine provisions. When God speaks, He does so through His established word. Therefore, we must study the Bible in a proper way in order to let the word of God dwell richly in our hearts. In order to study the Bible, we first must be proper persons, having passed through the necessary spiritual training under the Lord's leading and guiding. We must also use the right methods. Many good books have been printed on how to study the Bible, but most pay attention only to methods of studying the Bible; They do not pay enough attention to the person who studies the Bible. Even with the right methods, we can receive very little in our study of the Bible if our person is not proper before the Lord.
