Appreciate It! The Playbook for Employee Recognition Debra Corey,2022-03-04 As more companies from around the world have come to see the value and power of appreciation, they've put in place employee recognition programs. But with 65% of employees saying they don't feel appreciated and 87% saying their recognition program is stale, outdated, or used as disguised compensation, clearly something's not working. This book is a call to action and call for change for anyone who is interested in creating a culture of appreciation through their employee recognition strategies and programs, one that doesn't focus on the fancy trophy, expensive gifts or money, but on a feeling. Packed full of tips, tools and case studies from leading organizations including Atlassian, Chelsea Football Club, LinkedIn, Zoom and Zappos, will drive change and add the exclamation point to appreciation that's fit for your people and the future!
