Gun T an RPO System Kenny Simpson,2020-05-12 The Gun T RPO system is now available for coaches wishing to see Coach Simpson's offense. His playbook will provide the following for coaches wishing to see how the offense works: Formations and tags. Be as simple or complex as you want with simple tags.Motions and shifts. Confuse the defense by moving players pre-snap.Buck Sweep - All the flavors of buck sweep vs. any front the defense wants to throw out. Strong Belly - Coach Simpson's unique simple way to run strong belly will adapt to any front.Strong Belly Read - Making one blocking scheme into many is the goal of the Gun T RPO system.Jet Sweep/Quick Belly/Quick Belly Read - All 3 plays run with the same blocking rules and little adjustments.Counter Game - How to run a traditional wing-t counter and mix it with the RPO game.Passing game in the Gun T RPO systemHeavy SetAnd more...Review from Coachtube about the Gun T RPO System: Coach Simpson's Gun T Offensive Overview is an excellent offensive resource. This course provides the foundation of Coach Simpson's offensive philosophy. Coach believes in the monikers that Less is More and the Rule of 3, which both were evident in the explanation of the offense. His explanations were clear and concise, and the presentations were easy to follow. - Todd KnippThis is absolutely amazing. Coach Simpson does an excellent job of explaining his system. Whether your a young coach or an experienced coach this is must see. You can easily see why he is a successful coach. His detail an organization is on point and I cannot wait to learn more from Coach Simpson. - Mike KloesI've been following coach Simpson for a while now and it's very clear to me that even though I may not be a HC, we have similar philosophies. If you are a Wing T guy looking for ways to Modernize your offense, or a Spread guy looking for an effective and efficient run game this is the offense you should be looking at! - Coach ShefferThe course by Coach Simpson was quite helpful. As the new Head Coach of a small school - the Gun T system is going to help us be successful right away. Being a spread coach for the last 8-9 years, this system easily blends the best of both worlds of spread and wing-. -Mike WilsonCoach Simpson's Gun-T Offense is dynamic and efficient. This course gets into the foundation of building blocks of the Gun-T offense and what you are trying to do offensively to be as successful as possible. - Austin PinkAmazing detail on numerous variations of attaching RPO's to your Bucksweep. Keeps it simple yet extremely informative. Great Job Coach Simpson, you made me a believer! Highly recommend! - Mike TursoCoach Simpson does a awesome job explaining his system, and he does it a way that people like myself who are not familiar with RPO's can understand! - Coach Coleman

What to Know to Be an Effective High School Football Offensive Play Caller Bill Renner,2017-05-02 A play caller must decide whether to be a reactive or proactive play caller. A reactive play caller sees the defense as an unpredictable opponent. He is not sure where the defense will align, where they will blitz from, and what techniques they are playing in their defense. A proactive play caller sees the defense as a predictable opponent. That opponent has predictable defensive alignments which allows him to know where the blitz can come from, and to identify specific defensive techniques which defenders are using to defend his run and pass plays. This book is going to show you how to become a proactive play caller. A play caller who believes he controls the defense. A play caller who believes the defense must play the way you make them play by use of your formations and plays. That you, the play caller, are in control of the defensive opponent's players. To become a proactive play caller there are important play calling techniques and philosophies that you must know and learn. In this book, Coach Renner details those techniques and philosophies. They include how to use formations to see all 22, know where the ball is in the middle of the field or on a hash mark, how to know where the numbers advantage is, how to know where the blitz can come from, knowing your blocking schemes, knowing which defender you are attacking, how to keep track of how much you gain, how to not give up on a play, how to run the play and watch the defender's reaction, how to know what you opponent does well and avoid it, how motion limits play selection so be stagnant, and why down and distance doesn't matter. Coach Renner describes how each of these areas are important to a play caller and to being able to consistently score on offense. Coach Renner has called plays for 30 years, 23 years as a head coach. He has a consecutive game touchdown scoring streak of 141 games, a span of the last 13-years. During that time, his offenses averaged 31.1 points per game and 6+ wins per season. These things were achieved at four different high schools in two different states. This book will show you how to prepare yourself as an offensive play caller to call plays to consistently score like that.

How to Scout the Defense of Your High School Football Opponent Bill Renner,2014-11-01 Scouting a football defense is vital to the preparation and coaching of offensive football players for a game. Coach Bill Renner outlines a simple and efficient 10-step process to follow when scouting a football defense. The information gathered will provide the coaches and players with a confidence they need to have to play their opponent. Coach Renner has prepared high school offensive game plans for 30 years. He finished his football coaching career with a span of 13 straight years, 142 games, without the offense he was coaching being shutout. Following this simple 10-step process will help a coach in obtaining the knowledge to call offensive plays and know how and why the defense is aligned versus their formation. Play calling becomes more efficient and easier because you are calling plays to attack a players technique in a defensive alignment you are certain of. If you want to be certain that you are scouting your opponents defense the right way, getting the right information to help your offense, this book, How to Scout the Defense of Your High School Football Opponent, will give you that plan.

Wing-T Quarterback Syllabus and Play-Calling Manual Dennis Creehan,2007 No game is quite so demanding as football, and no position in football demands that a player deal with as many technical aspects of the game as does that of quarterback. These demands are not only physical, but also emotional and mental. A quarterback must attempt to gain a confident hold on his material so that the information and knowledge is readily available to be applied creatively and imaginatively. This syllabus is written so that a quarterback may prepare for the responsibility of directing his offense. That preparation would not be complete without an understanding of play selection, quarterback techniques, and the basic premises upon which the offense is designed. This syllabus should be used as a source of information and as a point of departure for creativity and imagination. Includes over 250 images and features bonus DVD!

Communicating Plays in a No Huddle Offense Using Numbers Bill Renner,2015-10-10 You cannot run a no huddle offensive system without a communication method that is simple for the players to understand, easy to signal in to the players and yet disguised enough that your opponent won't figure it out. With 13 years of experience running a successful no huddle offense, and 30 years of experience coaching and calling plays, Coach Bill Renner shares with you the sideline method he developed to communicate plays to his players. He shares with you No special signs, symbols or wrist coaches for each player are needed. You just use your hands. Coach Renner's numbering system allows you to communicate any type of play you want with three hand signals that any player can learn in a matter of a few minutes. Names of your plays are translated to numbers. Coach Renner details how to do that with pictures, sample play calls and his numbering system chart for each skill player. Numbers are easy to signal, easy for players to remember and easy to disguise from an opponent even ones you play every year. Coach Renner's play communication system is efficient, simple to teach, and doesn't require extra time preparing signs or wrist coaches for each player. If you are looking for a proven, efficient, easy to signal system to communicate your plays in your no huddle offense Coach Renner's numbering system will help you.
